

Creating a course on VOLP

This is the first and the most important step for an instructor.

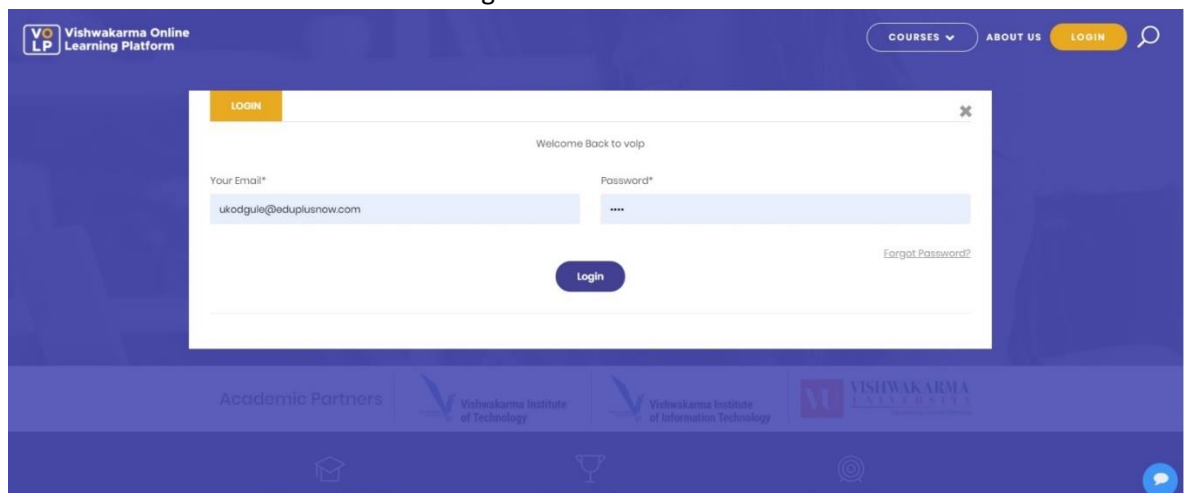

To create a course on VOLP, instructor must have login credentials (E-mail ID and Password).

Follow these steps to login to your instructor account.

1. Visit the following link <https://classroom.volp.in/>
2. Click on the login button.

3. Instructors can use official Email id for login.

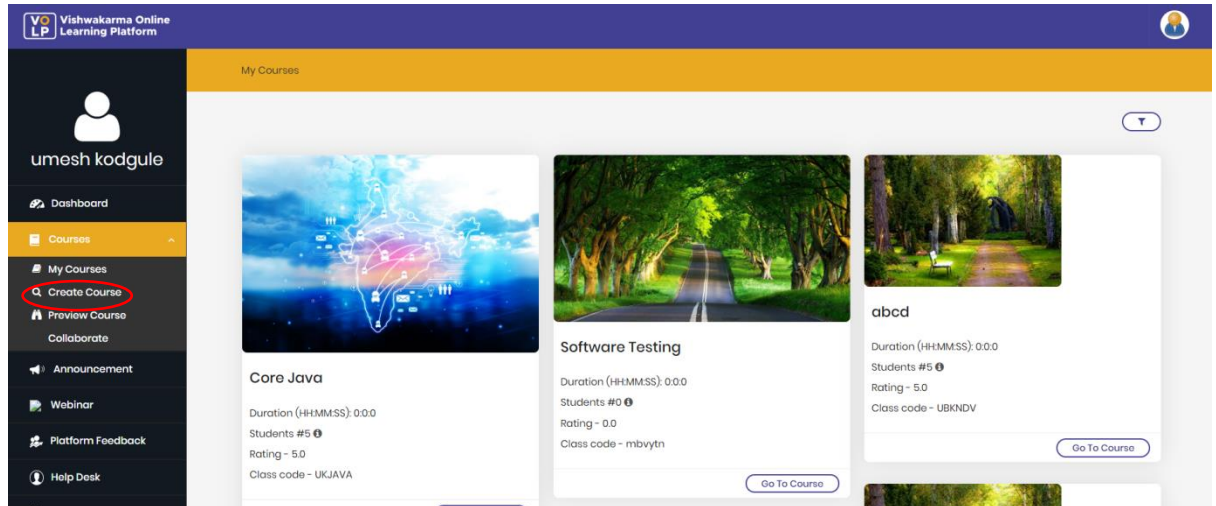

4. Enter the required credentials and click on Login button.

After Logging in successfully. You will see the below screen.

Follow these simple steps to create a course

1. Click on courses > create course

After clicking on create course you will see the Course Basic Info Section...

